The face that launched a thousand studies! Amber Heard has the most beautiful face in the world, according to scientific facial mapping software. Dr. Julian De Silva, who runs the Centre for Advanced Facial Cosmetic & Plastic Surgery in London, analyzed Heard's face using the golden ratio. This Greek-based number of Phi, or 1.618, represents aesthetically pleasing proportions and is long thought to be the secret of beauty.

"The Greeks discovered that the ratio occurs everywhere in nature and for thousands of years it has been thought to hold the secret formula of the world's most beautiful faces," De Silva said in the study. Not up on your Ancient Greek philosophy? Think of it as this: If you have features close to the golden ratio, you'll get plenty of swipe rights.

De Silva's team created software that calculates face shapes, making it easier to figure out the qualities that make someone physically beautiful. "The Phi ratio of 1.618 has long been thought to hold the secret for beauty, but now with the computer mapping we can calculate how it applies to real women," he explained.

Kim Kardashian comes a close second with 91.39 percent. Kate Moss is third with 91.06 percent, Emily Ratajkowski is fourth with 90.8 percent, and Kendall Jenner was fifth with 90.18 percent.
